1.2.62
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant
Theodore Cottingham, May 6. 2004
www.unc.bz

1. I come now and I call and I call you to WeekWorks, those of you who know who you are—my select few for this first WeekWorks that will precedence set forth for many WeekWorks hence. I love you and I bless you and I call you to My WeekWorks established on My foundation, My New Covenant, rock of rock, rock of My rock, rock of pure rock, foundationed on purely Me.

2. I love you and I bless you and I call you forth this day, arise into the leadership that I have established for you and wove into your very design for Me.

3. Be released and release and walk in freedom, joy and laughter that I have provisioned for you, with your name at My table, then with My worshipping WeekWorkables who will WeekWorks make and Universities design and bring forth for My glory, My power, My preeminence to shine forth for My pattern to be recognized, and for My creativity to flow into every vocation. I love you. I love you. I love you.

4. Grant Me this request and let Me show Myself strong. Prevent not yourself from that which I have for you—freedom, freedom, freedom. I love you, I bless you, I empower you this day.

5. Walk on the water, My hand is outstretched. I come and I call and I confirm and I network now and I sinew together the fabric of My forces, to generals make and armies birth, in freedom, freedom, freedom, soaring with Me. I love you.

6. Go have lunch and armies make, metrics utilized, empirical data gather, proving My value for the doubting, the doubting, the doubtful, the wondering, the wondering, the pondering-yet-hopeful, hoping, praying for more. I love you. I love you, I give you this day.

7. I give you Me, all of Me. Come and feast upon Me you who desire more, more, more in Me. Come. Thank you.

8. I am, I am, I Am.
You are.
I Am.